The City of Holland Human Relations Commission has partnered with Community Action House to offer a series of Foreclosure Prevention workshops. These workshops are free of charge, and permit members of the community to gather information about the foreclosure process, options, and programs. Time is made for attendees to fill out an intake form, present information in a PowerPoint form and time is allowed for questions/answers. The new Home Affordable Unemployment Program (UP) became effective July 1, 2010. Contact your mortgage lender to inquire if you qualify. For questions about the workshop, contact Gwen Robles, Housing Case Manager, Community Action House with any questions: (616) 738-8533.

These workshops are English-language, but if you speak Spanish and would be interested in a Spanish language workshop, please contact Aida Alvarado: 616-738-1170 or aalvarado@communityactionhouse.org

Se ofrece los talleres en inglés, pero si le interesa una clase en Español, por favor, hable con Aida Alvarado: 616-738-1170 or aalvarado@communityactionhouse.org
