

Washington Square

Washington Square, centrally located between 18th & 19th Street, known for its salon, art gallery, restaurant and many other quaint shops has historic character with buildings dating back to the early 1920s. An annual farmer's market, a gourmet market and specialty coffee shop help to bring neighbors near and far together any time of the year.

Greeted by a personal welcome, a friendly smile and exceptional service, Washington Square is a favorite destination for many throughout the City of Holland. Come see for yourself!
