Burning Ban Lifted

Press release date: 2012-07-30

Due to the recent precipitation in Holland, the Holland Department of Public Safety has lifted the burning ban that was implemented on July 6, 2012.

In accordance with the 2006 International Fire Code, this allows for the safe use recreational fires without a permit. Any additional open burning such as bon fires or controlled burns shall require a permit issued by the Holland Department of Public Safety: Fire Services. For more information, please see the complete press release below.
