

Online Registration

The Holland Recreation Division offers Online Registration for most of its programs.

Click here to proceed with Online Registration

If you have registered for programs with the Holland Recreation Division, you will have a Household ID #, this is also your password. If you have not registered with the Holland Recreation Division, you will need to come to the office to register first and then a Household ID # will be set up for you and your family to register for future programs online.

Call 616-355-1130 if you have forgotten your Household ID #
