

Bat Encounters with Rob Mies

Event Title: Bat Encounters with Rob Mies

Date/Time: Sat, May 4th 3:00pm

Location: DeGraaf Nature Center

Mark your calendars for this one! Rob Mies from the Bat Zone - Cranbrook Institute of Science- will be here with giant fruit bats with 4-5 foot wingspans as well as numerous bats from North America and around the world. The true story about bats and their amazing abilities will be told. Rob and his bats have been on Conan O'Brien, Martha Stewart, and the Tonight Show to mention only a few. This will be a real treat. Fee: $3 per person. Please register.
