

Police arrest man after firing several rounds

Press release date: 2013-12-18

December 18, 2013

IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Updated

Holland Police arrested a man last evening after he fired several rounds outside of a residence in the 300 block of W 21st. The incident was originally reported by family members of the suspect around 10:00 p.m. who knew he was upset after finding out information about past domestic relationships. Police were responding to W 21st Street when additional callers on W 21st Street reported hearing gunshots.

The suspect, who was accompanied by a friend, drove to the residence on W 21st to confront the individual he believed was involved. The suspect approached the house and fired several rounds from a handgun into the ground while also breaking a front window of the house with a hammer. The suspect did not enter the house.

When police arrived the suspect was arrested and held on several charges that will be reviewed by the Ottawa County Prosecutor's office today.
