

Public Safety Department Releases 2013 Annual Report

Press release date: 2014-03-21

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Public Safety Chief Matt Messer announced the release of the department's annual report of police and fire services activity for the calendar year of 2013. The report outlines prevention, intervention and response strategies and statistics summarizing the department's activity last year. Holland Police Service activity is featured in the first half of the report and Holland Fire Service in the 2nd half.

Although police and fire operations operate within their uniquely different public safety roles, both divisions continue to operate efficiently and effectively together to serve the citizens of Holland with the highest degree of competence and character.

The report can be accessed in the attached PDF.
