

Tenant/Landlord Rights & Responsibilities Handbook

The City of Holland Human Relations Commission published the Tenant/Landlord Rights and Responsibilities Handbook to promote good tenant and landlord relationships. The Human Relations Commission encourages both rental parties to become informed of their rights and responsibilities so that difficulties may be prevented and effectively managed if they arise.

You are encouraged to use the forms contained in this booklet which appear in the appendices. Tenant and Landlord court forms may be obtained at the district court.

The information in this booklet should not be used as a substitute for professional legal advice and assistance. Whenever necessary, both tenants and landlords should seek the services of an attorney to enforce their rights.
