

Business Licensing, Permits, Claims

The City Clerk's Office handles application and issuance of business licenses for many types of businesses located or operating within the Holland City limits. The Clerk's Office also processes various permits, claim forms, and facilities requests. Application forms can be completed, printed and returned to the Clerk's Office via fax, mail or in person.

The forms are organized into two categories: Business Licensing and General Forms & Claim Forms.

Note: The following forms are in Adobe Acrobat format. You will need the free Acrobat Reader to view these files. You can download it from Adobe's website.

Credit Card Payment: You may now pay for your business licenses by credit card. Simply fill in the Credit Card Authorization Form, print it, and submit form with your application. Credit cards may NOT be used for background check fee.

Note: All food service licensing and permits are issued by the county. For service in Ottawa County, contact the Health Department at www.miottawa.org or 616-393-5645. For service in Allegan County contact the Health Department at www.allegancounty.org or 269-686-4505.
