

Smallenburg Park

Smallenburg Park

Location

Smallenburg Park, Bouws Pool and the Skate Park are located northeast of 16th Street and Fairbanks Avenue.

History

Smallenburg Park was named after Dick Smallenburg April 1, 1959. Bouws Pool was named after Russ Bouws. He donated the funds to build the facility in 1973. The pool was opened in 1976.

Amenities

This is a family oriented park and playground adjoined by the Bouws outdoor community pool and a concrete plaza style skate park.

- Boundless Playground - ADA Accessible donated by the Rotary Club
- Grills
- Picnic Tables
- Large group shelter
- Public Swimming Pool - Bouws Pool
- Open green space
- Skate Park

Source URL (retrieved on 2015-01-26 13:33):

<http://www.cityofholland.com/parksandcemeteries/smallenburg-park>