

Centennial Park Gazebo

Centennial Park Gazebo

Location

Centennial Park is 5.6 acres bordered by 10th and 12th Streets, and River and Central Avenues.

History

Centennial Park was originally set aside as the village market area, but was dedicated to park use in 1876, in honor of the country's 100th anniversary. The park has a gazebo available for rental, pedestrian walkways, flowerbeds, a fountain, and a pond. The Veterans' Memorial and a Michigan historic marker honoring Dutch settlers in Michigan are located in the park. Brick pathways were added in 1987, making the park handicap accessible.
