The Holland Youth Advisory Council 2014-2015 Goals

On-Going

- Participate in Lakeshore Youth Leaders activities.
- Provide and/or select the nomination for the Human Relations Commission's Youth Social Justice Award each year.
- Make an annual report to City Council in the spring.
- Continue to raise awareness of HYAC through a variety of ways.
- Continue to support Pathways, MI with their Peer Refusal Training program.
- Promote the collaboration of local school districts.
- Organize a special City-wide event each year.
- Promote efforts to "Go Green" in Holland.
- Raise awareness and advocate for historical and cultural sites in the Holland area.

Short Term

- Form a relationship with the Holland Recreation Department.
- Organize social events for current and past HYAC members.
- Promote diversity in Holland through cross-cultural affairs.

- Find a way to support the Pay-It-Forward program.

Intermediate

- Build relationships with the youth in our Sister-City Queretaro, Mexico and our Friendship City Nagahama, Japan.
- Create awareness of involvement in our local water ways.

Long Term

- Aid and Assist any local organizations working with at-risk teens (i.e. teen pregnancy, dropout rates, dating violence, homeless youth, et. al.)
