

Criminal Investigation Division

(616) 355-1150

The Criminal Investigations Division consists of five Detective Sergeants and five Officer Detectives, including WEMET (West Michigan Enforcement Team). The CID investigates major criminal complaints, computer-based crime as well as vice and narcotics activity. The CID is supervised by Captain Rick Walters.

Detectives conduct follow-up investigations of cases including: serious felonys, child abuse and criminal sexual conduct cases, juvenile complaints referrals and arson. HPD also has a Detective who specializes in computer-based crime and computer forensics. The Criminal Investigations Division handles about 1,300 - 1,400 cases a year.

Our Department is fortunate to have an in-house certified polygraph (lie detector test) examiner who also assists other Law Enforcement agencies in West Michigan.

Source URL (retrieved on 2012-05-10 22:44): <http://www.cityofholland.com/police/criminal-investigation-division>