

The revised Emergency Order 2020-78 temporarily extends expiration of driver's licenses, state ID cards and vehicle Registrations.

- Individuals must to the best of their ability renew driver's licenses or registrations online.
- Strict compliance with MCL 257.309 and 257.314 and Mich Admin R 257.853(1) is temporarily suspended to the extent necessary to extend until July 31, 2020 the validity of an operator's license or chauffeur's license that expired or is set to expire between February 1, 2020 and June 30, 2020.
- Strict compliance with MCL 257.303 and 257.312f is temporarily suspended to the extent necessary to suspend any applicable medical certification requirement for operator's or chauffeur's license holders with any CDL designation or endorsement until July 31, 2020. Persons who would otherwise have to carry a valid medical certificate must carry a paper copy of an otherwise-valid medical certificate that expired on or after March 1, 2020.
- Strict compliance with MCL 257.216, is temporarily suspended to the extent necessary to allow an operator's or chauffeur's license holder with appropriate CDL group designations and endorsements to operate a commercial vehicle as though it had a valid vehicle registration until July 31, 2020, so long as that commercial vehicle has an otherwise-valid vehicle registration that expired on or after March 1, 2020.
- Until July 31, 2020, driving with a vehicle registration, operator's license, or chauffeur's license that expired on or after February 1, 2020 does not constitute a violation of the Michigan Vehicle Code. Law enforcement officials must not arrest any person nor impound any vehicle for the sole reason that a vehicle registration, operator's license, or chauffeur's license that expired on or after February 1, 2020. Nothing in this order prevents the Secretary of State from suspending or revoking an operator's or chauffeur's license, commercial learner's permit, vehicle designations, or endorsements on an operator's or chauffeur's license pursuant to the Michigan Vehicle Code.
- Strict compliance for state ID cards is also suspended.
- Automobile insurers must not take any adverse or negative actions against an individual due to expiration of an individual's license or registration between February 1, 2020 and June 30, 2020. Adverse action includes but it not limited to:
 - Cancelling, voiding, rescinding or refusing to issue or renew a policy of automobile insurance
 - Denying a claim
 - Increasing an automobile insurance premium amount charged for a new policy or renewal of an existing policy.

These provisions do NOT apply to:

- A person who had their driving privileges suspended or revoked for traffic offenses.
- A person who, since their last medical certificate was issued, has been diagnosed with a medical condition that would disqualify them from operating a commercial vehicle or has developed a condition that requires an exemption or Skill Performance Evaluation from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration.
