Accommodation – ALL TYPES

If you are applying for an accommodation special exception, you must complete this form. The BOA may only grant approval for a reasonable accommodation request if they determine that a rule, regulation, or policy is a barrier to a person with a disability from the reasonable use and enjoyment of the property.

1. Identify and explain the regulation that is a barrier to fair housing opportunities for the identified individual.

2. Describe in detail proposed changes to the property, structure, or use required to remove barriers or allow the individual(s) with a disability to live in and have reasonable ability to enjoy the dwelling and premises.

3. Since this accommodation specifically applies to a disabled individual, or group of individuals, and not a property, describe how the property will be returned to compliance when the occupancy changes.

4. List or describe any alternatives that have been or could be explored.

5. Explain why the request would not require a fundamental alteration in the nature of the City's zoning program.

6. Explain any financial or administrative burden to the City, or if none, why you believe so.

Incomplete or illegible applications may be rejected by staff, tabled by the Board, or denied.

Accommodation – RECOVERY HOUSE

If you are applying for a variance for accommodation involving a RECOVERY HOUSE, you must complete this form. The BOA may only grant approval if you demonstrate that you have evidence that you meet the criteria establishing a disability, and other sections of the ordinance.

1. Provide evidence that the recovery residence is state licensed as a Substance Use Disorder facility. Attach copies of a license.

2. Is the recovery house a certified member of an established entity that conducts its own inspections and has its own standards for the benefit of the occupants, e.g. CARF International, National Alliance for Recovery Residents (NARR) or any equivalent entity having similar requirement for membership? If not, why not? Or, attach evidence of membership.
