

News Release

Release Date: October 8, 2024
For immediate release

Media Contact:
Esther Fifelski
Human Relations Department
616-355-1322
e.fifelski@cityofholland.com

City Hosts Tenant/Landlord Fair Housing Update

The City of Holland's Human Relations Commission invites tenants, housing professionals, and housing advocates to a free Tenant/Landlord Fair Housing Update on Tuesday, October 29, 2024, from 6-7:15 pm at Calvary on 8th at 995 E 8th St #3087, Holland, MI 49423.

Representatives from the Fair Housing Center of West Michigan, Good Samaritan Ministries, Ottawa County Health Department, and Legal Aid of Western Michigan will be on hand to tackle the most frequently asked questions regarding fair housing laws and protections. There will be a special emphasis on tenants' rights, environmental health, and fair housing law updates.

Registration is at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/tenantlandlord-fair-housing-update-tickets-1028151628197>

About the Human Relations Commission: The Human Relations Commission serves to protect the equal rights and equal opportunities of all citizens by preventing discrimination in housing, education, employment, and public services. Learn more about HRC goals and activities by visiting humanrelations.cityofholland.com and by following along on Facebook.